STATS & STORYLINES

- Adam Klapka is having a strong end to the regular season and scored his first career AHL hat trick on Friday against Henderson. Klapka has scored six goals in his last six games and has eight points in his last six contests. The rookie from Prague is up to 12 goals and 11 assists for 23 points in 54 games for the Wranglers this season.
- Dustin Wolf won his eighth-straight game against Henderson on March 31st on route to his 39th win this season, the most in the AHL. Wolf also leads the AHL in shutouts (7), GAA (2.10), and Sv% (.932) this season. In his second season, Wolf has a record of 74-19-6 with seven shutouts and a career 2.25 GAA and .927 Sv%.
- Nick DeSimone recorded an assist on March 31st vs. Henderson for his third helper in his past two outings. With the assist, DeSimone has also reached the 40-point mark for just the second time in his AHL career and is six points away from tying his previous career-high in points which he set in 2018-19 as a member of the San Jose Barracuda (46).
- Ben Jones scored shorthanded against Henderson on March 31st for his 15th goal of the season. With the shorthanded marker, Jones is now tied with Kevin Rooney, Clark Bishop, and Brett Sutter for the team-lead in shorthanded goals (2). Jones would also add three assists for his first career four-point night in the AHL along with Second Star Honors.
- Connor Zary notched a pair of goals on March 24th against San Diego, giving him 20 on the season for his first 20-goal professional campaign. Zary is having a career-year with his 20 goals and 37 assists for 57 points in 64 games this season. Zary is the only player on the Wranglers to play in every single game this season and has a goal and four assists for five points in seven games against Coachella Valley this year.
- Dryden Hunt notched an assist on Adam Klapka's game-winning goal in the Wranglers last outing on March 31st to give him five assists in his last four games. Hunt recorded three assists on March 24th for his first three-point night of the season and since joining the Wranglers, Hunt has a goal and seven assists for eight points in 10 games.
