

Colorado Notes

DECIDING GAME- Colorado takes on Coachella Valley tonight in Game 5 of the best-of-five Division Semifinal playoff series. The Firebirds evened the series at 2-2 with a 4-3 win in Game 4, now forcing a winner-take-all Game 5 tonight. Colorado has been led in the playoff series by forward Mikhail Maltsev who has posted three goals and one assist, and defenseman Josh Jacobs who has collected a goal and three assists. The Firebirds have been paced by defenseman Ryker Evans, who has notched one goal and four assists in four games against the Eagles. This is the first time in the 2023 Calder Cup Playoffs that Colorado has faced elimination, while tonight's contest will be the third time that Coachella Valley has been pushed to the brink of elimination.

NOSE FOR THE NET- Forward Charles Hudon comes into tonight's game fresh off a two-goal performance in Game 4 and is now tied for the team lead in both goals (4) and power-play goals (2) in the postseason. In addition, his four points are now tied for second on the Eagles playoff roster. Hudon led the team during the regular season in goals (29) and points (54), while finishing tied for second with 25 assists. In addition, Hudon's 17 power-play goals led all skaters in the AHL. The 28-year-old finished just one goal shy of the career-high 30 goals he notched last season with the Syracuse Crunch. The two-time AHL All-Star has netted at least 27 goals in five of his first six seasons in the league.

QUICK IMPACT- Defenseman Brad Hunt and forward Ben Meyers each notched an assist in their 2023 Calder Cup Playoff debut in Game 4 after being reassigned by the Colorado Avalanche on Monday. Hunt was named the Eagles team captain in February and generated seven goals and 14 assists in 24 AHL regular season contests with Colorado. Meyers recently skated in six Stanley Cup Playoff games with the Avalanche and has collected six goals and 18 assists in 30 AHL games with Colorado this season.

PERFECT RECIPE- Several key factors have led to winning results during this playoff run for Colorado. Getting off to a quick start has certainly been one of those areas, as the Eagles are 2-1 when scoring the game's first goal and 4-0 when leading or tied after the first period. Sustained effort has put the Eagles 3-0 when tied or leading after 40 minutes. Interestingly, the Eagles are 3-1 when being outshot by their opponent and own a record of 3-1 when scoring at least three goals in a contest.

POWER HUNGRY- Colorado currently averages 12.17 penalty minutes per contest, while the Firebirds average just 7.43. The Eagles are facing a Coachella Valley team that leads the Calder Cup Playoffs with 31 opportunities on the power play, netting a league-best seven power-play goals. By comparison, Colorado has only had 16 chances on the man-advantage and four power-play goals.

Aaron SchneeklothAssistant Coach*10th Year with Eagles*Hometown: Calgary, Alberta*Career Notes:

Schneekloth joined Greg Cronin's staff in 2018 as an assistant coach after leading the Eagles to back-to-back Kelly Cup Championships in his two seasons as the team's bench boss in the ECHL. Schneekloth finished 2nd in the ECHL's Coach of the Year voting during his each of his first two seasons, after leading Colorado to a 47-20-2-3 record during the 2016-17 and a 48-18-4-2 mark during the 2017-18 campaign. He would also guide Colorado to a stellar record of 32-10-2 in the postseason.

Schneekloth previously spent three seasons as the Eagles assistant coach under former Eagles president Chris Stewart. Prior to moving behind the bench, Schneekloth enjoyed a highly-decorated professional career that spanned 11 years and saw him spend seven seasons in an Eagles sweater, including a championship season in 2007. Schneekloth retired in 2013 as the Eagles all-time leader in points, goals and assists by a defenseman. He also left having etched his name into the Eagles record book ranked 5th overall in points (356), 2nd in games played (382) and 6th in goals (111). He also owns a NCAA championship as a member of the University of North Dakota team which captured the NCAA title in 2000.

Tim BranhamAssistant Coach*2nd Year with Eagles*Hometown: Eagle River, WisconsinCareer Notes:

Branham, 41, enters his second season as an Eagles assistant coach after spending eight seasons as the head coach and general manager of the ECHL's Utah Grizzlies. After beginning his career as Utah's bench boss in 2013, Branham has since become the winningest and longest-tenured coach in Grizzlies history. The Eagle River, Wisconsin native guided the Grizzlies to a record of 284-205-76 and six playoff appearances during his time in West Valley City.

Prior to earning his first head coaching position, Branham spent three seasons as an assistant coach with the ECHL's Reading Royals from 2010-2013. During his time with the Royals, the team went 143-89-23 in the regular season and captured the 2013 Kelly Cup title.

Branham was drafted in the third round of the 2000 NHL Entry Draft by the Vancouver Canucks and played 284 professional games in the ECHL and AHL during his playing career as a defenseman from 2002-2010.

Greg CroninHead Coach*5th Year with Eagles*Hometown: Arlington, MassachusettsCareer Notes:

Cronin, 59, has spent over 30 seasons in coaching, including 12 years as an assistant in the NHL and seven seasons as a head coach at the AHL level. He spent four years on the New York Islanders' coaching staff, serving three seasons as an assistant before being promoted to Associate Coach in 2017-18. It marked his second stint with the Islanders, as he previously was an assistant coach with the team from 1998 to 2003. Prior to his recent time in New York, Cronin was an assistant with the Toronto Maple Leafs for three seasons from 2011-14, helping the Leafs to their first playoff appearance in nine years in 2013.

Cronin served two seasons as head coach of the Islanders' AHL team, the Bridgeport Sound Tigers, from 2003-05. The Arlington, Mass., native led the Sound Tigers to the playoffs during his first season in 2003-04 with a record of 41-23-16 (98 points).

Following his time with Bridgeport, Cronin spent six seasons as the head coach at Northeastern University from 2005-06 to 2010-11. He helped rebuild the Huskies program, improving from three wins in his first season to an NCAA tournament appearance in 2009, the school's first in 15 years. That season, he won Hockey East's Bob Kullen Coach of the Year Award.

Cronin was an assistant coach at the University of Maine (1988-90, 1993-95) and Colorado College (1990-93), and also spent time as interim head coach at both institutions, as well (Colorado College in 1992 and Maine in 1995-96). Following a four-year playing career at Colby College (1982-86), Cronin began his coaching career at his alma mater in 1987-88.

One of the co-founders of the United States National Development Program in Ann Arbor, Mich., Cronin served as the head coach and director of player development for the U.S. Under-18 Team for two years from 1996-98. Internationally, Cronin worked as an assistant coach for Team USA at the 1997, 2011 and 2012 IIHF World Championship, as well as the 1997 and 1998 IIHF World Junior Championship, where he helped the U.S. Junior National Team to a silver medal in 1997.
