Colorado Notes

FIGHTING FIRE – Colorado is taking on the Coachella Valley Firebirds for the first time this season, as the Eagles sport an all-time record of 14-7-3 against the Firebirds, including a mark of 8-2-2 in games played in Palm Desert. Coachella Valley has been led this season by defenseman Tyson Jugnauth, who has posted 14 assists in 11 games, as those 14 helpers lead all AHL skaters this season. Meanwhile, forwards Jagger Firkus and J.R. Avon have paced the team with four goals apiece. Colorado defeated the Firebirds 3-1 in the Pacific Division Finals of the 2026 Calder Cup Playoffs.

ROAD MAP- Colorado concludes a two-game road trip tonight in Palm Desert. The road has been especially good to the Eagles in the early portion of the season, as Colorado has gone 3-0-2 away from Blue Arena this year, a better record than the team's 3-3 mark on home ice. The Eagles opened the season with a two-game sweep at Tucson, before collecting three of a possible four points at Milwaukee and earning a point in a shootout loss at San Diego on Sunday. Colorado has outscored its opponents on the road 14-9, while the penalty kill away from Loveland is operating at 95.2%, which leads the AHL.

POINT PRODUCER- Forward Gavin Brindley is tied for the team lead with nine points on the season, despite only having played in eight games, thanks to a five-game call-up to the NHL's Colorado Avalanche. Brindley has points in each of his last two outings and has appeared on the scoresheet in six of his last seven. The third-year pro played in 56 games with the Avalanche last season and helped the Eagles reach the Western Conference Final by generating eight points in 17 games in the Calder Cup Playoffs.

CLEAN SHEETS – Goalie Trent Miner stopped all 27 shots he faced in the Eagles 3-0 victory over Charlotte last Wednesday, as he registered his first shutout of the season in just his second start of the campaign. Meanwhile, fellow netminder Ilya Nabokov also owns one shutout, a 32-save blanking of Tucson on opening night, now giving Colorado's goaltending tandem a pair of shutouts through the first 11 games of the season. As a team, the Eagles are one of the stingiest groups in the AHL, surrendering an average of just 2.45 goals-against per contest.

THE EXPERIENCE – Colorado's offensive attack has been bolstered by a pair of veteran forwards in Jayson Megna and Adam Beckman. Megna, who missed the first six games of the season, has since produced four goals and an assist in his first five games of the year, including goals in each of his last two games. He is coming off a 2025-26 season in which he matched his career high with 26 goals. Beckman leads the Eagles with five goals, including goals in two of his last three outings. He is also coming off an impressive 2025-26 season, having netted a career-best 30 goals with the Bridgeport Islanders.

Derek Army | Assistant Coach | 2nd Year with Eagles

Hometown: North Kingstown, Rhode Island

Career Notes:

Army, 35, is in his second season with the Eagles and prior to that was the Head Coach of the ECHL's Wheeling Nailers, where he was the winningest coach in franchise history. After being tabbed a midseason replacement in 2020-21, Army received the full-time head coaching duties ahead of the 2021-22 season and held that position each of the last four campaigns. Including his stint as the interim bench boss, Army compiled a 153-137-19 record from 2020-25 and qualified for the Kelly Cup Playoffs in three of those seasons, including each of the last two. Army also held the Director of Hockey Operations title from 2021-25.

A native of North Kingstown, R.I., Army began his coaching career serving as an assistant with the ECHL's Worcester Railers over parts of the 2018-20 seasons. He joined the Nailers ahead of the 2020-21 campaign as an assistant before being promoted to interim head coach while the season was in progress. The Railers registered a 32-29-11 record in 2018-19 and fell five points shy of a playoff berth.

A forward in his playing days, Army played five seasons of professional hockey in both the AHL and ECHL. He suited up in 97 regular-season AHL contests and recorded 26 points (11g/15a) over the 2015-18 campaigns with the Portland Pirates, Ontario Reign, Wilkes-Barre/Scranton Penguins, Texas Stars, Milwaukee Admirals and Tucson Roadrunners. Army played his entire ECHL career with the Nailers and collected 130 points (59g/71a) in 159 regular-season showings from 2013-18. The right-shot forward also notched 12 points (4g/8a) in 29 ECHL postseason games, including 10 points (4g/6a) in 2015-16 when Wheeling made it to the Kelly Cup finals.

Army was selected to the 2014-15 ECHL All-Rookie Team when he led the club with 29 goals and finished second on Wheeling with 66 points. He was also twice named ECHL Player of the Week (April 6-12, 2015 and Oct. 19-25, 2015).

Prior to turning pro, Army competed collegiately at Providence College from 2010-14. He compiled 76 points (38g/38a) in 149 games during his four-year college career.

Army's father, Tim, is currently an assistant with the Anaheim Ducks and spent six seasons on the Avalanche coaching staff as both a video
